LONDON, Dec. 6, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- AbelNoser Solutions and FactSet Research Systems announced today that they have teamed up to create a comprehensive MiFID II best execution and reporting offering for FactSet clients and their affiliates. The service provides fund managers comprehensive regulatory/compliance reports, end client best execution review and analysis, internal review including broker/venue analysis and commission comparisons along with execution consulting.

Commenting on the announcement, Peter Weiler, President of AbelNoser Solutions said, "We are thrilled to work closely with FactSet to provide our suite of products to satisfy specific requirements brought about by MiFID II regulation. This watershed event brings new challenges not only to our mutual clients domiciled in Europe, but for many clients around the globe. Our partnership addresses those challenges by helping clients remain compliant and competitive in the changing investment landscape."

Nupen Shah, Director of EMEA at AbelNoser Solutions in London adds, "This is a really exciting first step in our collaboration with FactSet to provide multi-asset transaction costs analytics. Our partnership will initially focus on MiFID II best execution compliance and reporting for Cymba IMS Clients, and will make them well-positioned to leverage our value-added alpha capturing applications."

"As clients demand a seamless workflow around MiFID II compliance and reporting, I am happy to welcome AbelNoser into the Channel Partner Program. The tools that AbelNoser offers further strengthen the Cymba offering for the current regulatory demands around MiFID II and future needs," said Dave Hannibal, Global Manager of Channel Partners, FactSet.
